

Part V

The purpose of this survey is to find out what strengths you develop in building your career.

Instructions: Each person builds a career with different strengths. There is no one who is good at everything. Everyone chooses to focus on certain strengths in building his career. Below are the strengths commonly used to build a career. Carefully read each statement on the next page and place a cross sign (X) on the column on the right to show how strong you have developed these abilities. If you don't develop this ability, give a cross (X) in the "Not Strong" column.

Example:

	Strongest	Very Strong	Strong	Rather Strong	Not Strong
1 To think about future career development plans

However, if you are very strong in developing this ability, give a cross (X) in the column "Very Strong".

	Strongest	Very Strong	Strong	Rather Strong	Not Strong
1 To think about what my future career will be.
2 To realize that my choice today clarifies my future career
3 To prepare for my future career.
4 To pay more attention to educational choices and skills that may support my career in the future.
5 To plan how to achieve my career goals.
6 To care about my career
7 To keep optimistic towards my career
8 To make my own decisions.
9 To be responsible for my actions.
10 To hold onto my belief.
11 To rely on my self.
12 To do what is right for me.
13 To know other work activities around my career.
14 To look for an opportunity to develop as an individual.
15 To investigate options before choosing.

	Strengths	Strongest	Very Strong	Strong	Rather Strong	Not Strong
16	To observe different ways of doing things.
17	To dig deeper and formulate it into questions to solve problems.
18	To want to know about new opportunities.
19	To do the tasks efficiently
20	To make sure everything goes well.
21	To learn new skills.
22	To work hard according to my abilities.
23	To overcome the obstacles.
24	To solve problems.
25	To be a person who is not only self-oriented
26	To being friendly
27	To achieve goals together with others.
28	To cooperate with other people in group projects.
29	To carry out tasks that are my responsibility in the team.
30	To compromise with other people.
31	To learn to be a good listener.
32	To contribute to my professional community.
33	To spend time with my professional community.
34	To share knowledge with others.
35	To hide my true feelings for the good of the group					